

All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care (AIIHPC) 7th Annual Palliative Care Research Network (PCRN) Symposium

Thursday 15th November 2018, 10:00 – 16:00 - Ashling Hotel, Dublin

09:30 – 10:00	Registration and networking opportunity
10:00 – 10:20	Welcome Dr Mary Rabbitte, Research Programme Manager, AIIHPC Professor Joanne Reid, Chair of PCRN, Professor of Nursing, Queen's University Belfast Opening Dr Kathleen Mac Lellan, Assistant Secretary, Social Care Division, Department of Health, Republic of Ireland (ROI) Jackie McIlroy, Deputy Chief Social Worker, Department of Health, Northern Ireland (NI)
10:20 – 11:00	Lessons Learned on Integrated Palliative Care at a European Level Dr Jeroen Hasselaar, Assistant Professor in Anesthesiology, Pain and Palliative Medicine, University of Radboud University Medical Centre, Netherlands
11:00 – 11:30	Conversation Panel 1: What would integrated care look like for people with life-limiting conditions? John Joyce, Voices4Care; Dr Jeroen Hasselaar; Dr Felicity Hasson, PCRN Member, Senior Lecturer, School of Nursing, Ulster University; Dr Joan Cunningham, Medical Director, Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services. Chair: Professor Joanne Reid
11:30 – 11:45	Coffee break and networking opportunity
11:45 – 12:00	AIIHPC and Palliative Care Research Network Update Karen Charnley, Director, AIIHPC Fintan Fagan, AIIHPC Chair and Chief Executive Officer, St Francis Hospice Professor Joanne Reid, PCRN Chair Dr Bernadette Rock, Policy and Research Manager, The Alzheimer Society of Ireland
12:00 – 12:15	Strategy for Funding Health Care Research on the island of Ireland Dr Darrin Morrissey, Chief Executive Officer, Health Research Board, ROI Dr Janice Bailie, Assistant Director Health and Social Care R&D, PHA NI
12:15 – 12:55	Research on Carers: Impact of Caregiving, Predictors of Negative Impacts, and Interventions Professor Gunn Grande, Professor of Palliative Care at the University of Manchester; Lead for the Supportive and Palliative Care group at the Division of Nursing, Midwifery & Social Work and the End of Life Care Programme at CLAHRC Greater Manchester.
12:55 – 13:30	Conversation Panel 2: How can research support carers on the island of Ireland? Harry Cheevers, Voices4Care; Professor Gunn Grande; Craig Harrison, Policy & Public Affairs Officer for Marie Curie NI; Dr Geraldine Foley, PCRN Member, Assistant Professor Occupational Therapy, Trinity College Dublin. Chair: Associate Professor Suzanne Guerin, PCRN Vice-Chair, School of Psychology, University College Dublin
13:30 – 14:30	Lunch
14:30 – 15:45	Workshop 1: Be Involved, Lead and Write Winning Proposals for EU Projects Workshop Leader: Dr Jeroen Hasselaar. Facilitators: Dr Mary Rabbitte, AIIHPC, Kay Duggan Walls, EU Programmes Officer, HRB.
14:30 – 15:45	Workshop 2: Challenges and Opportunities in Conducting Research on Carers Workshop Leader: Professor Gunn Grande. Facilitators: Dr Ann Leahy, AIIHPC; Dr Cathy Payne, AIIHPC.
15:45 – 16:00	Key Learnings and Closing Comments Professor Joanne Reid, PCRN Chair