

10TH ANNUAL PALLIATIVE CARE RESEARCH NETWORK SYMPOSIUM

'EQUALITY AND EQUITY IN PALLIATIVE CARE'

Thursday December 2 2021
09:00 - 16:15, online

Supported by:

09:00 REGISTRATION

09:15 Welcome and Opening

Dr Mary Rabbitte, AIIHPC
Professor Joanne Reid, QUB, Chair of PCRN

09:30 'What would it take to ensure that no one faces poverty at the end of life?'

Dr Sam Royston, Director of Policy and Research at Marie Curie UK; Q&A Chair Professor Joanne Reid

10:15 Panel discussion on equality and equity in palliative care

Professor Mary McCarron, TCD; Dr Paul Gregan, GP and PC Consultant OLH&CS; Martina Crehan, Voices4Care; Joanna Davies, Dunhill Medical Trust PhD Research Training Fellow; Chair Professor Suzanne Guerin, UCD, PCRN Vice Chair

11:15 BREAK

11:35 'Beyond observing the problem – understanding why socioeconomic inequality exists in end of life care'

Joanna Davies, Dunhill Medical Trust PhD Research Training Fellow; Q&A Chair Dr Peter May, TCD

12:20 Early Career Researcher Forum Abstracts

Anne Jordan, Dublin Simon Community; Dr Aoibheann Conneely, TCD & OLH&CS; Q&A Chair Clodagh O'Donovan, AIIHPC

12:40 LUNCH

13:40 Early Career Researcher Forum Abstract

Lisa Cronin, HSE Community Care; Dr Deborah Muldrew, UU; Q&A Chair Clodagh O'Donovan, AIIHPC

14:00 'Palliative care for the older person - considering data to plan for the future'

Professor Karen Ryan, Clinical Professor, UCD School of Medicine; Q&A Chair Karen Charnley, AIIHPC Director

14:45 Networking Opportunity

Facilitator Marie McKeon, AIIHPC

15:05 COMFORT BREAK

15:15 'Developing an equity agenda for palliative care: where should we start?'

Professor Merryn Gott, Associate Head of Research, University of Auckland, New Zealand

15:45 'How can we develop an equity agenda for palliative care on the island of Ireland?' - a facilitated discussion

Chair Dr Mary Nevin, DCU

16:00 Concluding Remarks

Professor Joanne Reid