Living as Well as Possible: Lessons from Palliative and End of Life Care for the Health and Care Community Webinar

Thursday 15 September at 3pm via zoom

International Foundation for Integrated Care Ireland in association with All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care (AIIHPC) are hosting a webinar for all those involved in the design and delivery of health and care services across the island of Ireland including people, care givers and families who are interested in learning more about a palliative and end of life, person-centred approach to care.

As part of Palliative Care Week 2022, you are invited to hear from a range of experts who have been working at system level and in the community to understand what lessons can the broader health and care workforce learn from those working in palliative and end of life care. and what lessons can be applied elsewhere in the system and across the whole life course. The panel will be co-chaired by Prof. Áine Carroll, Director of IFIC Ireland, and Paula Pinto, Programme Manager for Policy and Engagement at AIIHPC and the speakers are:

- Alison Bunce, Compassionate Inverclyde, Scotland. Compassionate Inverclyde is a social movement which inspires ordinary people to do things for ordinary people by tapping into our desire to be kind, helpful and neighbourly. Alison Bunce has been programme lead for Compassionate Inverclyde since 2016.
- Professor Xavier Gomez-Bastiste, University of Vic, Spain. Professor Gomez-Bastiste is Director of the Quality Observatory of the ICO and Chair of Palliative Care at the Faculty of Medicine in the University of Vic and former Director of the WHO Collaborating Centre for Public Health Palliative Care Programmes (WHOCC-ICO).
- Denise Cranston, Palliative Care Nurse, Northern Ireland and Dr Tracy Anderson, Palliative Medicine Consultant, South Eastern Trust Rapid Access Hub for Palliative Care at the South Eastern Trust in Northern Ireland
