

11TH ANNUAL PALLIATIVE CARE RESEARCH NETWORK SYMPOSIUM

'Building collaboration between clinical and academic settings'

Friday 25 November 2022 | The Ashling Hotel, Dublin

PROGRAMME

09:00 Registration and networking opportunity

09:15 Welcome

Karen Charnley, Director, All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care (AIIHPC)
Prof Andrew Davies, Professor of Palliative Medicine, University College Dublin (UCD), Trinity College Dublin (TCD), Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services (OLHCS), and Palliative Care Research Network (PCRN) Strategic Scientific (SSC) Committee Chair

09:25 Opening

Gearóid Cassidy, Director of Primary Care, Department of Health (NI)
Maurice Dillon, National Lead for Palliative Care, Health Service Executive (ROI)

09:40 PCRN Strategic Plan 2023 – 2027 launch

Dr Mary Rabbitte, Research Programme Manager, AIIHPC

09:55 The strategy for healthcare research on the island of Ireland

Dr Janice Bailie, Assistant Director, HSC R&D Division, Public Health Agency
Dr Maura Hiney, Head of International Cooperation, Evaluation and Targeted Programmes Research Strategy and Funding Directorate, Health Research Board

10:15 Leading international collaboration in the mySupport Study

Professor Kevin Brazil, Professor of Palliative Care, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Fellow in Centre for Evidence and Social Innovation, Queen's University Belfast and PCRN member

10:50 Coffee break and opportunity to view ECRF posters

11:20 Early Career Researcher Forum abstract presentations on 'Building collaboration for palliative care research between clinical and academic settings'.

Kasia Patynowska, Marie Curie UK; Nipuna Thamanam, DCU; Yvonne Muldowney, TCD.
Chair: Clodagh O'Donovan, PCRN Project Manager, AIIHPC

11:40 The good, the bad, the ugly: building a palliative care research programme

Professor Miriam Johnson, Professor of Palliative Medicine at Hull York Medical School, and Director of the Wolfson Palliative Care Research Centre

12:15 Building collaboration between clinical and academic settings - panel discussion

Prof Andrew Davies; Professor Miriam Johnson; Prof Kevin Brazil; John Joyce, Voices4Care member.
Chair: Dr Michael Connolly, Associate Professor, School of Nursing, Midwifery and Health Systems, UCD and PCRN member

13:00 Key learnings and closing comments

Karen Charnley, Director, AIIHPC

13:10 Lunch and networking