BUILDING PARTNERSHIPS IN PALLIATIVE CARE

All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care (AIIHPC) is a leading organisation with national and international influence driving excellence in palliative care. AIIHPC is a collaborative of hospices, universities, health and social care organisations and charities on the island of Ireland. As the palliative care sector's institute, AIIHPC is:

- Involving people with life-limiting conditions, carers and communities in palliative care delivery and development
- Working to integrate palliative care across the health and social care systems so people are supported as early as possible
- Supporting the development of specialist palliative care services for people who need them.

www.professionalpalliativehub.com

AIIHPC
The All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care

www.aiihpc.org

AIIHPC
Palliative Care Research Network

AIIHPC, Second Floor,
Education & Research Centre,
Our Lady's Hospice, Harold's Cross,
Dublin, D6W EV82

info@aiihpc.org

AIIHPC
Palliative Care Research Network

Delivering research that improves the quality of life and death of people with life-limiting conditions

The Palliative Care Research Network (PCRN) activities include:

- Collaborative research funded at National and EU level
- Annual Symposium
- Targeted policy maker, practitioner and public engagement events
- Special Interest Groups
- Mentoring
- Networking and collaboration opportunities
- Sharing your research and expertise – webinars, blogs, podcasts, workshops and conferences
- Newsletters and updates
- Research study pages hosted on www.professionalpalliativehub.com

See the Palliative Care Research Network Strategic Plan 2023-2027:

For more information on PCRN membership:

For more information, see: www.professionalpalliativehub.com

OUR VISION

As the leading network for palliative care research on the island of Ireland, network members undertake internationally recognised research that enhances palliative care knowledge and expertise and improves the quality of life of people with life-limiting conditions and their families.

Our PCRN Members

Leading researchers from AIIHPC member organisations on the island of Ireland who focus on palliative care research from medicine, nursing, psychology, occupational therapy, physiotherapy, speech and hearing therapy, health economics, pharmacy and law disciplines.

Benefits of being a PCRN Member

- Connect with a community of leading academic and clinical researchers
- Support for your engagement with policy makers, service providers and commissioners
- Support for patient and public involvement in your research, including through AIIHPC's Voices4Care panel.
- Expert advice on funding applications, and support for the development of research collaborations.
- Support for research impact, from idea development stages through to dissemination and implementation.
- Support with recruitment to your research
- Timely access to palliative care news and insight, including relevant funding opportunities and events
- Free prioritised access to AIIHPC events and reduced rates for EAPC international conferences
- Skills development opportunities through expert-led events, and a library of online playback material

Our Early Career Research Forum (ECRF)

ECRF members come from over 60 different academic, clinical, charity, service provider and regulatory organisations on the island of Ireland.

You may be an early or mid-career researcher in palliative care, an experienced practitioner in another sector or field, or just starting out on your professional life: become a member and connect with a rich pool of knowledge, experience and collegial support.

Benefits of being an ECRF member

- Access peer and mentor support
- Develop links with experienced researchers in multiple disciplines
- Participate in capacity building workshops and share your own knowledge and experience
- Receive regular updates on funding and career development opportunities, events and publications.

For more information and to join the ECRF: